

Biblical Affirmations

FOR YOUR MORNING ROUTINE

- I have been created to do good works that have already been prepared for me to do. (Ephesians 2:10)
I will seek your guidance for my next steps and I will walk in them.
- I am no longer a slave to the ways of the world - gratifying the cravings of my flesh and following its desires and thoughts. (Ephesians 2:3)
I will choose to walk in the Spirit over the flesh.
- I am constantly surrounded by You, Lord - in the midst of your presence. You are here with me. (Psalm 16:8)
I will recognize your constant presence in my life.
- Overflowing joy is available to me no matter my circumstances. (Romans 13:15)
I will choose joy.
- I am victorious on this earth because of my faith in You, Lord. (Romans 8:27)
I will live from a place of victory, not defeat.
- You are able to do immeasurably more in my life than I can fathom. (Ephesians 3:20)
I will loosen the grip on my desires to make way for your plans that are beyond any of my wildest dreams.
- Each day is a new opportunity for me to make the most of. (Ephesians 5:15-16)
I will not waste this day.
- God, You supply me with everything I need to fulfill Your purposes. I am not limited to my own resources. (Philippians 2:3)
I will lean on You and your strengths instead of my own.
- Knowing You, God, is worth any cost. (Philippians 3:8)
I will make the sacrifices necessary to know You.
- My citizenship is in heaven. It is my home for eternity. (Philippians 3:20)
I will live like a traveler here on earth and not let this temporary world consume me.
- My decisions follow me to heaven. Everyday I have a choice to build out of hay, stone, gold, or straw. (1 Corinthians 3:12-13)
I will choose to build what lasts for eternity.
- The church is Christ's body, in which He speaks and acts - by which He fills everything with His presence. (Ephesians 1:23)
I will do my part to bring your presence, Jesus, to my corner of the world.
